Danny D is the most realistic Rod Stewart impersonator in the industry today. Whether you are a fan of the old Rod or the new classic Rod, Danny can do it all and will leave you begging for more.

A world class entertainer, Danny has been playing, singing and writing music all his life. As a young man, growing up in the heart of Motown he formed his own group headlining shows in and around the Detroit area. "The Danny D Live Band" has opened for and worked with Uncle Kracker, The Tubes, Mitch Ryder, Bad Company, David Lee Roth, The Romantics, Air Supply, and The Silver Bullet Band. Danny has released three CDs and is currently working on a fourth.

Rod Stewart has always been an idol of Danny's. His voice and appearance are so similar to Rod Stewart that it's uncanny. Having performed Rod Stewart songs with "The Danny D Live Band" for years, it wasn't till recently he decided to impersonate him. When Danny is on stage, he takes on Rod's moves, voice and accent. Danny D becomes Rod Stewart.

The Rod Stewart Tribute Show can do anything from one song to three 60 min sets and is capable of doing track shows or live band performances. Danny is willing to travel within reason. Pricing will vary upon venue.

Danny D is the only look alike to be called up on stage by Rod Stewart.
 Together they sang "Do Ya Think I'm Sexy" to a sold out, wildly cheering crowd.
 August 6th, 2008, DET Energy Theatre, Detroit, Michigan
